

Perceptions of EU crisis management

Fieldwork: 10 – 16 April 2024

TOTAL EU 26 015 INTERVIEWS | NETHERLANDS 1 004 INTERVIEWS | FL 546

1 Awareness of EU crisis management

DX1. To what extent are you aware of the EU's efforts in responding to cross-border crises (health emergencies, natural disasters and conflicts) via, for example, financial assistance, or help on the ground? (%)

- I (or people around me) have directly benefited from EU support in response to a major crisis
- I know of concrete examples how the EU has helped people/countries in times of crisis
- I am aware that the EU is involved in dealing with crises, but I do not know exactly in what way
- I am not aware that the EU is involved in dealing with crises

2 Effectiveness of EU crisis management

Q1 Imagine a major crisis affecting [YOUR COUNTRY] and surrounding countries. How effective or not do you think the EU's response would be in each of the following situations? (%)

Providing relief for large natural disasters (e.g. floods, wildfires, earthquakes)

Managing health emergencies (e.g. COVID-19 pandemic, epidemics)

Dealing with the impact on the EU of violent conflicts (e.g. Russia's war of aggression against Ukraine)

- Very effective
- Rather effective
- Rather ineffective
- Very ineffective
- Don't know

3 Governance level for crisis management

Q2 Should [YOUR COUNTRY] be affected by a major cross-border crisis, which level should primarily deal with each of the following aspects? (%)

Preventing and reducing the impact of major crises, by developing early warning systems, EU-level emergency stocks (medication, planes, etc.) and teams ready to respond

— The EU level
— Both the EU and the national level
— The national level
— Don't know

Leading the cross-border coordinated response when a major crisis occurs

Forecasting and anticipating potential major crises

In the aftermath of a major crisis, arranging the recovery and restoring normal life

4 Role of the EU in crisis management

Q3 To what extent do you agree or disagree with the following statements? (%)

The EU should be more involved in preparedness efforts for future crises, through actions such as raising awareness, organising training and crisis simulation exercises

In addition to communication by national authorities, the EU should play a more active role in providing timely information and guidance to citizens

— Totally agree
— Tend to agree
— Tend to disagree
— Totally disagree
— Don't know

The EU should be provided with the necessary resources to anticipate, prepare for and respond to major crises, even if this means slightly reducing EU funding in other areas

National and EU level crisis response would be better supported by a commonly agreed group of EU leading experts, providing scientific evidence-based advice

The EU is better prepared to deal with a major crisis than 5 years ago

